

SECRETARY GENERAL OF UNESPA

Basic information

María Aránzazu del Valle Schaan.

Madrid (Madrid), Spain. 1963.

Education and training

Bachelor Degree in Law. Universidad Complutense de Madrid (UCM) (1986 Class)

Master of Community Law at Institute for European Studies. Université Libre de Bruxelles (ULB) (1987 Class)

Professional career

1996-Today: Secretary general of UNESPA.

1988-1996: Head of Foreign Affairs of UNESPA.

1987-1988: Territorial Policy at the European Commission General Directorate (European Economic Community, current European Union)

Other institutional positions

2011-Today: Member of the Junta Consultiva de Seguros at the Ministry of Finance and Competitiveness of the Kingdom of Spain.

2012-Today: Member of the board of directors of CEOE.

2012-Today: Member of the board of directors of Cepyme.

2002-Today: Member of the Executive Committee of Insurance Europe.

2016-2018: Member of the Budget and Nominations Committee of Insurance Europe.

2016-2018: President of Insurance and Reinsurance Stakeholders Groups (IRSG) of the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (Eiopa).

2013-2016: Spokesperson at the IRSG of Eiopa in behalf of the European insurance industry.